Great and Useful Invention.

No more Mortality for want of Water.

Sure wealth to Estancieros

By the Robert Apparatus.

Being notorious the immense injury occasioned by the scarcity of water during the long (secas) that afflict the camps of Buenos Ayres, I have determined to dedicate to the Estancieros an Apparatus at once simple and infallible for procuring as much water as they may require.

120 Bordalesas per hour (it seems fabulous) is procured with my apparatus, without fear of at any time its getting out of order.

This machine is worked by one horse and in one day's work can give 41 Bordalesas; that is to say, sufficient water for 20,000 head of cattle.

By these figures can be calculated the immense advantages gained by its use.

Another advantange is the facility of putting it together and taking it to pieces, so as to be able to transport it to any place where it may be necessary to use it, either for watering purposes or others.

GREAT MODIFICATION.

I have made an improvement in my Apparatus, applying a new system which reduces the necessary force two thirds, giving it at the same time more rapidity.

Those interested can see it at Calle Moreno, No. 346 (Henerrado, Paris.)

One sole inspection of the Apparatus will prove to them the superiority of it over any other. ROBERT.

ENGLISH PACKET REVIEW.

OUR POLITICAL CHAPTER.

There are many foreigners in the habit of saying "Buenos Ayres will be a fine country, one thousand years hence," as if this and the other S. American republics were destined to undergo a long period of industrial lethargy and political disorder, before taking their places among the rising nations of Christendom. If we consider, however, the steady progress of General Mitre in a right direction, and the rapid development of the arts of peace in B. Ayres, we may reasonable hope that the next generation will see the Argentine republic a great and prosperous nation.

As a straw indicates the direction of the current, so we may prognosticate much from the result of the late elections. Six deputies were to be elected to Congress, for this province, and two lists of candidates were drawn up by the rival Clubs which arrogated to themselves the right of directing the public mind. Each list contained two or three excellent men, most apt for the vacant office; nor did it matter a pin which side prevailed. But the ultra party, nick named Catalines, always foremost in every disturbance or revolution, had begun to regard President Mitre as a traitor, because he was friendly to peace, and they resolved to make the elections a cloak for their designs. Accordingly the Nacional and Tribuna, two incendiary papers, commenced a series of articles, charging the National Government with coercion, fraud, tyranny &c. and comparing Gen. Mitre's friends and supporters to the satellites of Rosas, called 'Restauradores.

At the same time Governor Saavedra was unfortunately seduced by his minister Acosta and other anti-nationalists to declare open hostility to the President's policy, and the national official organ mentions cases in which the Provincial authorities threatened to shoot or banish to the frontier any person who voted in opposition to Sor Acosta's wishes. Such is the mockery of republican liberty! In this state of affairs most of the citizens adopted our policy, embracing neither party, since both had been instrumental in causing a collision.

Grave fears were entertained of a riot in the city as had happened shortly before when some lives were lost, on the day of election. But President Mitre took suitable precautions, and the list backed by the two factious journals was defeated without any serious disorder. In the country districts a still more overpowering majority was in favor of those calling themselves Mitre's friends. The rejection of such men as Sres. Riestra and Peña would be in itself no victory, but every honest man in Buenos Ayres rejoiced to see the revolutionary party crushed, in the wholesale defeat of a list which had the misfortune to be supported by such an element. The French paper came out with a sweeping denunciation which was at once responded to by twenty challenges to mortal combat, for the rage of defeat was heightened by the ungenerous jeers of the conquerors. The rejected candidates lost not their temper, for they were really passive, and perhaps had little ambition to be hoisted into Congress on the shoulders of dangerous constituents. At present, thank God, the ultra-party is annihilated and hangs its diminished head: even the editor of the Tribuna had to lay down his pen, meditating voluntary exile, being succeeded by his brother just arrived from Paris.

The revolution in Cordoba was happily suppressed, almost without bloodshed, although the rebels had at first gained possession of the barrack. The Governor, Ferreira, is accused of tyrannical outrages, but it is certainly no easy task to rule Argentines. The other provinces are quite tranquil, although we hear rumours of an Indian invasion on the frontiers of San Luis. Even Catamarca, the standing sore of the republic, seems mending. San Juan is likely soon to have a new Governor, Sor Sarmiento having definitively accepted the post of Minister at Washington. Governor Cullen of Santa Fe has resigned though ill-health, being succeeded by an energetic man named Oroño. It is not clear whether Gen. Urquiza will abandon the reins of power in Entre Rios: some say he will be succeeded by his son Diogenes Urquiza, but probably not before his death.

Flores' rebellion continues in the B. Oriental, without more hope of a speedy termination than existed ten months ago. All interest for the filibusters seems to have died out in Buenos Ayres, for we hear of no new efforts, either by the Minister of War or Revolutionary committee, to send them fresh aid or supplies.

This month although the shortest in the year has been fraught with more good omens for La Plata than any for a long season.

INDUSTRIAL REVIEW.

The steamer leaves us after a happy termination of the long talked of elections. The people, we are happy to say, manfully supported the Government of President Mitre, although it is alleged every species of trickery was resorted to at the urns; in fact it is idle now to suppose, after the lamentable experience we all have had of civil wars in this country during recent years, that a handful of mad politicians will be allowed to plunge us into anarchy and bloodshed. Many were of opinion that as the anti national party were indefatigable in their exertions they would carry the day at the elections, but the result has proved most unmistakeably that Buenos Ayres wishes for peace, and peace we must have at any cost.

The La Plata, which is posted for sailing for Liverpool on the 2nd March, takes home the first bale of ginned cotton ever shipped from Buenos Ayres by the 'Standard.' We consign it to Mess. Stolterfoht and Co. of Liverpool, and hope it will prove a satisfactory specimen of South American cotton. We hope to ship as the season advances several hundred bales. There is now no longer any doubt as to cotton in these countries; owing to many causes the planting has been rather limited this year; but next year we hope to establish clean ginned cotton as one of the staples of the Argentine Republic.

The Minister of the interior, Dr. Rawson, who is the son of an American, is we are happy to say taking the subject of emigration under his particular attention, and through his exertions we understand an emigration society is about to be established in Rosario, which will materially advance the Republic, as we are greatly in want of a laboring population in the interior.

The continued delays experienced by Mr. Wheelwright in the Argentine Central Railway enterprise has greatly disheartened his best friends in Rosario, and many think that as Mr. W. has transferred his interest in the road to Mr. Brassy the road will never be made. We have done our best to combat this idea, in as much as Mr. Brassy is a far more influential personage in England than Mr. W., but in Rosario and elsewhere the people will not believe this, and it is even said that in order to carry out his railway speculations in the Province of Buenos Ayres he has sundered his connection with the Argentine Central road. It is to be hoped that the company will be duly formed, and the stock introduced on the London Exchange as early as possible, in order to meet the anxious expectations of the people in this country.

The present state of the Argentine provinces is all that could be desired: peace reigns throughout this immense territory, industrial pursuits occupy the inhabitants, trade is reviving, and in fact everything is beginning to look better with us. In the province of San Juan the greatest activity is noticeable. Mr. Rickard has arrived out with his machinery; the three furnaces are completed. A third call of 25 per cent. has been made on the stock, so as to enable the company to purchase quartz. Under the auspices of Mr. Rickard the affairs of the company seem in a rather prosperous condition. We have been informed by a gentleman recently arrived from San Juan that in the month of March it was expected the company would commence operations, but owing to the great distance and high freights to Buenos Ayres it was thought that the silver would be forwarded to Valparaiso for the present.

The National Government has just concluded a contract with the French engineering firm, Sordeaux and Co. for making Artesian wells in the province of Rioja. It is a happy omen to find the public money now being sunk in industrial pursuits, where recently two million $ silver were wasted in civil war. The cost is defrayed out of the Public bonds for Roads and Bridges voted by Congress. The object of these wells is to provide water on parts of the high road now difficult for travelling, owing to the want of post-houses in the desert.

Corrientes commands some interest with the proximate hope of a small cotton-crop—say 1000 or 1500 bales. More important still is General Ferre's mission to open a road through the Gran Chaco. This would be an immense gain to internal commerce, placing Corrientes and the upper Paraná within one fourth of the present distance from Salta and our other provinces inland.

We regret to say that in the province of Buenos Ayres farmers have suffered severely from the drought, being obliged to drive their sheep to the frontier lands, and in many cases into the adjoining province of Santa Fe. Happily, however, we have at last had torrents of rain, and our countrymen are now returning to their own farms, but the drought has been the most frightful experienced in this country for the last fifty years.

In the city of Buenos Ayres, trade although not very brisk, is not to say dull. Our importers and exporters have been pretty busy, and many of our saladeristos in Barracas have commenced operations, which has caused a perceptible stir in our market.

In our last review we mentioned the inauguration of the last section of the Northern railway. The traffic has increased so prodigiously that the tramway to the centre is found wholly insufficient, and the Co has just received permission to substitute steam-power between the Retiro and Plaza Mayo. For this it will be necessary to lay down a more solid way.

The Western line progresses at a snail's pace in the works of prolongation, and will form a ridiculous contrast when Messrs Peto and Betts begin the Great Southern: the ceremony of turning the first sod of the latter will take place next week.

The cool decision which President Mitre displayed in suppressing all descriptions of disturbances at the late elections has tended greatly to increase confidence in his government and the general opinion is that he will rule the the country with a firm hand, and totally suppress the revolutionary spirit which it was feared was apparent.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The grievances complained of by the master of the English barque Jhelum do not seem exaggerated. We have received a copy of the charter-party which we will publish to-morrow. So many tons should be discharged daily, yet the vessel was left for an interval of thirty eight days without lighters. The Western railway president tries to lay the blame on Mr. Santamaria, saying the latter must pay demurrage if proved. The case is now before the Tribunals and Capt. Stannus will be for some time paying out law-casts instead of a cable.

There is still some talk of a duel between the fiery French editor and the Argentine officer "whose hand was so given to shaking, that he could not fight with pistols." Surely they had better "shake hands" over the affair, which is the more ludicrous as Sor Orma belonged to the Cocido club, not to the one attacked by Le Progress.

The opera of Rigoletto on Wednesday evening was poorly attended, the audience hardly numbering 600. Mme. Briol sang with her usual success, and was called before the curtain after the 2nd act. Lelmi broke down once, but retrieved himself in the chansonnette 'La donna é mobile,' when Mollo's graceful acting elicited great applause. Celestino played Rigoletto almost as well as we could have expected from Mirate, for whom Verdi is said to have composed this opera.

The acrobats, Buislay brothers, perform Zampillaerostation and other feats at Colon Theatre on Sunday evening. We are glad they have recovered from their recent accidents, and learn that they excel the famous Lees brothers On the same night the French Buffess play at the Victoria.

We read, in the 'Pueblo,' of three ruffians who had broken into and plundered a house at the Cinco Esquinas, but one Sor. Fernandez succeeded in seizing them and handing them over to the police. It is a great shame, that the examination and trial of such delinquents are not published. The public would be more on its guard, and some clue be, probably, discovered as to their haunts and associates.

The 'Tribuna' has an attack on General Emilio Mitre, because he supported his Presidential brother at the late elections. If this is to be M. Varela's manner of defending the National policy, we hardly think he will be invited to the tea-parties at No. 144 calle San Martin, next May.

Don Carlos Paz's resignation of militia secretary came like a bomb-shell on the Provincial Government. His heroic valedictory has been indicted by Governor Saavedra as libellous, since he insinuates that Minister Acosta stole the Nat. Guard registers for the purpose of putting down fictitious voters. Meantime it is said Dr. Paz has overdrawn his salary, and cannot pay up.

President Mitre's official organ accuses the Provincial authorities of having forged the voting returns of 25 de Mayo, by altering the number actually polled, 167, to 635. This, it says, will account for stealing the militia registers from the office of Dr. Paz. It is said a similar attempt was unsuccessfully tried at Mar Chiquita. Minister Acosta ought to come before the public, or resign his portfolio. What must our European readers think of such doings?

THE WAR IN MONTEVIDEO.

As many young men have recently come out to settle in the Banda Oriental, we warn intending immigrants that they must be prepared to change the venue to Buenos Ayres. Flores' campaign against the Government may last four or five years more, as he cannot take the capital, and the Blancos cannot face him in the open country.

His recent siege of Montevideo was as before: he had about two thousand men and was only able to cut off communications with the campagna. Finding fodder for his horses growing short he raised the siege and now continues his vagabond tactics roaming at will, from place to place. It is said he intends fighting Servando Gomez, who has an army of 3 00 men, but past movements shew that neither party wishes to come to a deadly encounter.

Meantime President Berro's term of office expiring on March 1st, the senators were convoked to elect a 'locum-tenens,' and the choice fell on Sr. Aguirre. This will probably have little influence on the course of events, and we may expect a repetition of crossing and crossing the Rio Negro, until an indefinite period.

PARANA

By the 'Litoral' of that city, we see that a foreigner's house has been broken open, and the owner placed in solitary confinement by the authorities. It would appear that a French basque had been, to use an euphemism been looking at some people drinking and getting excited, had amused himself by shouting in the street, 'hurrah for somebody, and down with some other party.' He was pursued by the whole of the police of the city, seven in number, but managed to reach the shelter of his own house. About 11 or 12 the same night, a commissary of the police, attended by two or three men, presented themselves before his house, demanding entrance, which was refused, and they forced open the door and seized the unlucky votary of Bacchus. Liberty Wilkes stated that an Englishman's house was his castle, that the rain might enter it, and the wind whistle round it, but the king could not. Were he here in Calle Belgrano, he would find that his misquotation was decidedly wrong, for the serenos, as representatives of Argentine authority, do constantly whistle round our house. We do not suppose that President Mitre could ever lower himself to be a perpetrator of a practical joke, and such a joke as to whistle round a man's house; and we hope that we may enjoy the rest of an Englishman's privileges, and that we be safe from rain entering our house.

REVIVAL OF TOKENS

It would appear that in Parana, a party rejoicing in the name of Jose Macia, by profession a saladerista, has taken it into his head that his name is as good as that of the Government, and feeling convinced that all right-minded people must hold the same opinion, he has commenced issuing 'billetes' in his name for various sums ranging from a medio to 2 reales, Bolivian money. If he can only persuade any one to take his money for a legal tender, he will be a lucky man, but it will be a hard thing to do. This we can vouch for, as we have seen that small game tried before and fail.

When metallic currency became so scarce in the States, and before the issue of 'Greenbacks,' it was customary for barkeepers to hand their customers small 'billetes' for change, and which were taken again at their proper value. So long as the barkeepers kept the power of issue on their own side, they thought it was a remarkably fair little speculation, but they never, for one moment, entertained the idea that their customers should also play at it. We remember the look of horror and disgust of a well known barkeeper, near the Bowling-green, New York, when a half-tight loafer coolly handed a piece of paper in payment for sundry drinks "Hullo! what's this?" "Don't ye see? Cant ye read? Aint it plain enough? 'Good for 50 cents, Buggins.'" "Oh! said the barkeeper." Let Mr. Macia take warning, or perhaps some fine morning he will find a man paying for his hides with paper bearing 'Good for ten dollars, Martinez.'"

SAN PEDRO GONE CRAZY

When the steamer Pavon arrived at San Pedro, with the news of the victory of the Cocidos, the good folks there went completely out of their senses with joy. They commenced by firing off innumerable rockets, and in the Plaza singing the national anthem, and hurra-ing for General Mitre. In the evening there was a ball given, at which some 40 ladies assisted, and dancing with the members of the Club Pueblo made them forget for a moment their past troubles.

This is knocking out one nail with another. For how many of those unfortunate San Pedro politicians are not suffering from worse troubles than those they endured before? How many of them are over head and ears in love? and how many of them are not obliged to confess that they have been, not refused, but 'declined with thanks,' at the end of the season!

When we mentioned to a friend of ours, Diogenes R——, as an instance of the splendour of the ball, 40 ladies being present, he only grunted and said 'pshaw! women would rather than not dance at all, dance with the enemy of mankind.' Like most epigrammatic sayings, we fear that Mr. Diogenes' remark has a little truth for foundation, but that, at the same time, somewhat overdrawn.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

What must strike a stranger very forcibly is the horrible cruelty practised to horses in all parts of this province. Frequently we have seen a couple of bagfuls of bones, by stretch of imagination yclept horses, harnessed to a cart, and a ruffian, called a driver, armed with a heavy stock whip, laying it into these unfortunate quadrupeds. Darwin mentions the winning smile with which a gaucho requested him to dig his persuaders into a half dead horse, and on the naturalist refusing to take act or part in such a proceeding, the gaucho, mistaking his motive, exclaimed, 'Oh! it is my horse.'

On one occasion we ourselves saw a 'mayoral' of one of the camp diligences break the handle of a spade, with which he had been trying to dig the wheel out of the mud, over one of the horse's backs.

Scarcely a day passes but there are instances of horses falling in the streets and unable to rise, still less to draw the immense weights with which the carts are loaded. That angelic body of men, true descendants of the 'nil admirari' savages, the police, seem to think that so long as they themselves are not in the shafts, they are not bound to interfere.

A French philosopher, in his travels, saw a man driving a harrow, to which were attached a jackass and his own wife. The driver was dispensing his blows pretty equally between the quadruped and the biped. After the manner of travelling philosophers he began to moralise upon the sight, and the upshot of his reflections was, not pity for the woman, but for the jackass, which he considered the more ill-used of the two, inasmuch as the man and woman were of the same species, but poor Neddy was lowered in the scale of creation by being driven by a greater and lower brute than himself.

VIRGIN CAMPS.

San Nicolas, Feb. 20th, 1864.

To the Editors of the Standard.

Gentlemen,

Let it not be supposed that I write for diversion—far from it. Conscious that many of my fellow countrymen are at present wandering about with their flocks at all points of the compass, I wish that they should be saved the expense of a journey to the virgin camps of the Pavon. I arrived after a rather tedious gallop at San Nicolas, which though destitute of beggars is as far as I have seen full of destitution and beggary. The elections had just taken place, and although I heard from a garrulous 'pulpero' that the whole town was full of 'crudos,' in the hope of driving the capital from Buenos Ayres to this miserable hotbed of half-famished politicians, still I was told with no small astonishment that the Club del Pueblo or National party had gained the day by a most sweeping majority. The town of San Nicolas reminded me strongly of a man elegantly dressed, but without shoes or stockings: it is a town full of stately azotea buildings without tenants, shops without goods, and a plaza twice the size of Buenos Ayres, but without a soul to walk in it. Each evening the band plays to the 'paraisos' and empty seats. I enquired for the best hotel, and being told that it was the Comercio in the plaza, I repaired to that delectable abode which is like every thing else in that deceptious village, grand and good looking outwardly, but hollow and dirty within. Meeting a rather obese nigger at the door I enquired for the owner, and was told that we were all proprietors. This rather amused me, as I had no idea when I left the Villa Luxan to be called the owner of such a stately looking mansion. On enquiring for dinner I was informed that the Club did not dine until seven o'clock; on asking for tea I was informed tea was only served at nine. Brandy then let me have, shouted I. Oh ye divinities what rot gut—I will not attempt to describe to you, Messrs. Editors, the quality of liquor brought me, suffice it to say that I collared the ruffian waiter and like the latitat server in my own sweet native land, made the fellow drink off half a tumbler of it—all the doctors of this pretentious place were called in to cure him. I left the place, look for the owner of the mythical 15 leagues of Santa Fecino virginity. After peregrinating through squares of blue painted dwelling houses, shops without counters, and mud ranchos without tenants, I at last made out the abode of Sr. Altamayor, who received me with characteristic expressions. I immediately proceeded to business and began about the 15 leagues. "Ah yes," he replied, "some dozens of people have been to see me on the matter; last week I intended to sell but since I came here I have heard that a square league of land in that worn out, used up, demoralized, abandoned, half ruined partido called the Villa Luxan has sold for one million ten thousand paper dollars; now my land is virgin soil—no sheep or cattle have ever munged its pasture, and although worth five times the value of Luxan land I am prepared to sell it at the same rate." "What do you mean," shouted I, "have I not been told by the man in charge of the estancia that the price is four reales a yard?" "Ah, yes," he replied, "last week if you called on me I should have sold at that rate, but now I am not to be taken in; and if you want camp very cheap I think you had better go back to Luxan, where I hear the people are selling their estancias almost for nothing in consequence of the seca." Perceiving that I could do nothing with such a customer, I bid him good bye, with very strong recommendations in English as to where he and his virgin lands ought to be sent.

I returned to the hotel, and found that dinner was ready. The Club of San Nicolas was seated around the table—but what a club! Composed apparently of a set of hair dressers and pulperos: as usual, politics was the subject of conversation. Unable even to feed in such company, I left the table with the intention of hunting up some of the parties to whom Mr. Parker gave me letters. I saw them all, but they were all on the one word. Virgin camps had gone up, and sheep-farmers were flocking up daily. No land would be rented for more than two or three years; and as for selling, people would not be so foolish as to sell their properties for a trifle.

Greatly disheartened, I returned to the hotel to rest after the fatigues and disappointments of the day; but, oh! Mr. Editor—will you believe it!—some ruffian had seated himself before the old out-of-tune piano in the club-room, there kept stumping and thumping to the ecstatic delight of a diversified crowd of washerwomen. In vain I tossed and turned on my 'catre.' The noise of that awful pianist was too much for me. After turning the matter over, I resolved upon the course to pursue. I strutted into the room where the San Nicolas musician was at work, and complimenting him in the blandest manner for his kindness in thus, as it were, enlivening the monotony of the place, I invited him to take a drink. Brandy I called for—brandy I gave him. Your readers, who do not know what San Nicolas brandy is, may congratulate themselves on the fact. The musician I left stretched at full length in the hall, with his head resting on a scraper more like a piece of a scythe than anything else. I turned in and slept well, and started off early the following morning to see another virgin estancia close to Pergamino, the particulars of my journey I will send you in my next.

Yours, &c.,

A RAMBLING SHEPHERD.

COLLECTION FOR FLORES.

Our readers will, perhaps, remember that a company of young men had advertised to the Buenos Ayres public their intention of parading the streets of this city during the three days of the past Carnival, for the purpose of collecting money for the benefit of the wounded in Flores' army. They carried their intention into effect, and they now publish the result of their exertions.

By the statement now before us it appears that they collected	$6,479
From which have to be deducted necessary expenses incurred for music, dresses, &c. ...	1,470
	$5,009

Leaving a balance of five thousand and nine dollars as a premium for fostering revolutionary principles. B Ayrean sympathies are worth exactly £24 9s 1d sterling.

COMMERCIAL REVIEW.

Buenos Ayres, Feb. 25, 1864.

The market holds out prospects of more activity during the coming month, that the consumption will be large, and, on account of the late heavy rains, and the camps therefore improving, we may expect improved transactions.

We have but little to remark of our market, this month, it has scarcely changed since our last. Arrivals of vessels from foreign ports have still been large, and our market is well stocked with salt, coal, lumber and tiles.

An increased demand has arisen for edibles: sugars, and rice, especially of the better classes, are rising in price; in other articles no alteration has been noticed.

In liquors, only Holland gin, which is scarce, is in demand. Caña, although scarce, and this being the season of its principal sale, has not been asked for.

The better classes of Bordeaux wine are scarce, and in request. We refer our readers to the following list.

Cognac—Arrivals are frequent, and prices are not improving. Sundry lots (Bordeaux) have been sold in wood at 21 and 22 dols. per gallon, duty paid—in cases 60 and 62. German cognac at 59 and 58.

Olive Oil—In jars no demand, tins being preferred; 50 quarter casks have been sold ex Cronometro and Dorotea from Barcelona, at 110 dols per arrobe, duty paid; ex Maria Rosa from Barcelona, 100 qr. casks at 115 dols. duty paid.

Carolina Rice—No quotation can be made.

Brazil Rice—The sales: good quality of difficult sale.

Indian Rice—The arrivals have been few, and stocks decreasing, prices are rising; good quality is of ready sale; 200 bags were sold at 40 dols. per arr., duty paid.

Italian Rice—All stocks have been cleared off; and the demand remains firm: the sales have been ex Horacio 50 bags at 42 dols per ar.; ex Rosita 175 bags at 43 dols.; ex Andrew Doria and Carlota 830 bags at 43½ dols. and of stocks on hand 700 bags at 46 dols.

Valencia Rice—Good quality is very saleable. Sales—ex Nuevo Ramoncito 831 bags at 40 dols per ar, duty paid

Refined Sugar—Prices rising; holders of Havre sugar are asking higher prices than these already paid, viz., 20 sl. rls; stocks of this class are moderate. In German sugar little or nothing has been done: sales, 100 barrels Hamburg at 69 dols. per arrobe, duty paid; 50 barrels do at 70 dols. 300 barrels Dutch at 71 dols, 200 barrels Havac at 71 dols; 400 barrels do. at 70 and 71 dols., 700 barrels do at 71 and 72 dols., 150 barrels at 17½ slv. rls bond.

—Havannah Sugar—Stocks are light; fair qualities easily sold. Sales, 5 cases white at 59 dols. per arr., duty paid; 534 c. white, at 15 3¦4 s. rls., duty paid; broken, 13½ s. rls.

Coffee—No extensive stocks on hand; good qualities in demand, as the season for its largest consumption is drawing near.

Beer—Well known marks are in request; Tennent's preferred. Sales 300 barrels, half white half black, Byass, price unknown.

Coal—Shipments are increasing and prices falling. Sales, 00 tons, ex Belgigea, from Cardiff, at 9 s. dols. on board.

Leathers—Scarce, and the principal season of demand drawing near.

Farina—Saleable, and prices rising; 338 bags ex Elegancia, from Santa Catalina, have been sold at 13 dols., duty paid.

Gin—Hollands in demand and scarce; Hamburgh is not asked for. Sales, 2000 flasks superior Hollands, Anchor, to arrive, at 69 dols., duty paid; 3,550 flasks Rotterdam, Anchor, at 58 dols.; 300 demijohns of 2½ and 3 falls, at 40 dols.

Flour—Of superior class of North American there is none on hands; native flour is rising in price, and sales are slack in consequence of the few importations.

Lumber—On account of the increased importations, and large stocks on hand, prices are falling. Sales, 110 thousand feet of pine, ex Coral Queen, from New York, at 38 s. dols. the thousand feet on board; ex St Dominique, from Boston, 2 0 thousand feet at 28 s. dols. per thousand, on board; ex Katherine, from Machias, 250,900 pine at 27 s dols.

Mustard, English is scarce and in demand, and good quality of French is saleable. Some parcels of French have been sold at 36 dols. per dozen, duty paid.

Ox Lard—Scarce and in demand and owing to the seca, native manufacture has been much reduced.

White Paper—Only balauza Español is of easy sale; other classes are dull. Sales, 85 bales balanza Español in reams, at 60 dols. duty paid.

Estraza Paper—The market is well stocked, and prices are without any change. Sales, 600 bales, large size, at 21½ dols. per ream, duty paid; middling size, 13½ dols.; small size, 10½ dols.; 100 bales large size, 22 dols.; middling size, 14; small size, 1 dols.; ex Carlota, from Genoa, 100 bales at the same prices.

Pepper—Shipments being frequent, prices are somewhat lower. Sales have been—ex Doria, from Barcelona, to arrive, 150 tins, at 4¼ s. rls., bond; ex Cronometro, Barcelona, Elegancia, and Santa Catalina, 213 cases and 100 tins of 1 arr. and 50 tins of 1½ arr. and 135 dols., duty paid; ex Nuevo Ramoncito, 55 barrels (á la vista); ex Madrona. 210 tins at 135 dols. per arr., duty paid.

Cheese—Gringu and Dutch are scarce; round cheeses are plentiful, and we have heard of no sales.

Salt—The demand for the saladeros being much reduced, on account of the bad state of the camps, and frequent arrivals having taken place, stocks have increased and prices fallen. Sales—ex Danube, from Cadiz, 7000 fanegas, at 7 s. rls, on board; ex Cristoforo Colombo, 4000 fanegas at 7 1¦2 s. rls., on board; ex Tio Fratelli, from Cadiz, 7000 fanegas, at 5 s. rls., on board.

Brazil Tobacco—Superior classes are scarce: sundry parcels of superior quality have been sold, at 137 dols. per arr.; duty paid; good quality at 110 dols.

Paraguayan Tobacco—Stocks moderate, and but little demand. Sales—100 bales (good leaf), at 29 s. rls., bond. (media and pito) at 22 s. rls.

North American Tobacco—None held: but none is asked for at the last price, at 400 dols arr., duty paid.

Tucuman Tobacco—Good class of easy sale.

Tea—The market is quite disassorted: the last cargo which arrived direct is held wholly by one person. No sales to be mentioned.

Catalan Wine—As mentioned in our last, prices, owing to the large stocks held, have somewhat fallen. Large supplies are expected. The following sales have been effected:—ex Doria from Barcelona, 245 pipes Miralles at 42 s. dols, duty paid, to arrive; ex Cronometro, from Barcelona, 200 pipes Arragonese, at 1300 s. dols., duty paid; ex sundry vessels. 320 pipes Carey and Abello, 1430 s. dols.; 280 pipes Socias, at 1360 s. dols.; 50 pipes gosset, at 1360 s. dols.

Absinthe—The market is well assorted, and good qualities are of easy sale.

Yerba Paraguaya—Demand is not active, and the high prices hinder sales; a decline is soon expected. Sales, ex Paraguari, 600 packages, at 170 dols. arr., duty paid: a parcel of regular quality, at 139 dols.; sundry lots, at 160 dols.

Yerba Paranagua—Low prices are ruling, and demands are very moderate in consequence of the present small consumption in the camp. Sales—2120 packages at 45 per arrobe, duty paid: 100 packages at 46 dols.

Yerba Misionera—Superior qualities in small packages are of easy sale. Stocks are much reduced—sale, 30 packages at 60 dols. per ar. duty paid.

Yerba de Rio Grande and La Gierra—There have been no arrivals; superior qualities are saleable, but we have heard of no sales.

Native Produce.

The saladeros have been working, during the last fortnight, on a very small scale, and it is not expected that they will raise their prices for the next thirty or forty days, when the haciendas may be a little better than they are at present. There have been some considerable transactions in dried cowhides, principally for North America.

The prices of produce generally have been firm, and we do not expect, at present, to see them lower.

EXPORTS

The sales of saladero ox and cow hides, during the last fifteen days, are—1500 cowhides, at 31 rls.; 21,000 ox do., at 37, 38 1¦2 rls.; 22,500 hides do. No stock.

Sales since 1st November, 1863—187,000 hides.

Slaughter—180,000 do.
Fortnight's slaughter—135,000 do.
Hides to make, 7000 do.

In saladero tallow the sales are—100 pipes, at 14 rls. Stock—100 pipes.

In saladero horsehides, no sales.

In matadero salted hides, the sales are—
2000 cows, at 31 1¦2 32 rls.
2000 ox, at 36, 36 1¦2 rls.
4000 hides. No stock.

In mares' grease, no sales.

In jerked beef, the sales are—14,500 qq., at 18 rls. Stock, 140,000 qq.

The total sales of dry hides during the fortnight are 47,000 hides. The total stock of all classes now remaining unsold, is 55,000 hides.

In American hides, the sales are 17,000 hides, at 42 rls; Entre Rios, 40 rls., Correntines; classified, 35 1¦2 39 rls

Stock of classified, 10,000 hides.

In German hides, the sales are 11,000 hides, at 39 rls; camp cow, 44 rls; camp ox, 39 rls.; matadero cow, 45; matadero ox.

Stock of classified 6900 hides.

In Spanish, French, and Mediterranean, the sales are—9,000 hides, at 38 1¦2 40 rls., heavy.
34 to 34 1¦2 rls for kips.
40 rls. Correntines.
37 rls. Cordova.

LOCAL EVENTS.

The University—In a few days the Alma Mater of Buenos Ayres is to be again opened. If the professors were to do their duty both to the parents and the students themselves, they would devote a few days to flogging their pupils for daring to mix themselves up in politics. It is perfectly absurd to see a parcel of boys aping grown up men not in their virtues, but in their vices. The Argentine politicians, for their own sakes, should see to this flagellation, as nothing is more liable to bring ridicule upon their pursuits than to have as companions the juvenile students.

A Surrender—Eleven men, adherents of the late Chacho, have delivered themselves up to the Juez in Cordoba. Some of them were armed, and others not.

Pueblo—It is reported that Commandante Alvarez, at the head of some troops, had arrived at Cordoba, and notified to the Government that Pueblo had surrendered.

Exports—On the 22nd inst., 7 vessels cleared out for foreign ports with the following cargoes:—2165 bales wool, 12,059 cowhides, 23,00 horns, 2 bales feathers, 200 barrels tallow, 20,000 bones

The Caaguazu—Since this steamer has been so shamefully treated by the port authorities of Montevideo, she has again been put on the Uruguay station.

Trade of Rosario—In 1863 the value of exports amounted to 3,265,682 silver dollars, and the total duties recovered by that branch of the Government, were 537,908 silver dollars. The number of vessels which entered Rosario in the same year, were 423, with a total tonnage of 32,295 tons; of these, 342 with tonnage of 27,608 tons were from Buenos Ayres, and the remainder were from Montevideo. Of vessels which sailed, 372 were for Buenos Ayres, and 53 for Montevideo. All these vessels arrived and sailed with cargo.

Strange Occurrence—Some few nights ago, as a young man was passing by the Plaza del Parque, some people who were standing in the Cafe del Parque saw him, and ran to their houses to get arms to attack him, but when they returned they, like Mother Hubbard, found that their intended victim had skedaddled—(N A)

For Paraguay—The Danish barque, Candace, from New York, has brought nine machines, probably cotton gins, for President Lopez. They manage things better at Asuncion than here.

Exports.—On the 23rd and 24th inst. five vessels cleared out with 3,700 qq. jerked beef, 731 horse hides, 5 c. tallow, 149 bales horse hair, 82 bales sheep skins, 8 bales nutria, 8,902 cow hides, 90 calf skins, 3,403 bales wool 1 ton bones, 3,000 horns, and 190 bales hide cuttings.

Copiapo.—This city, it appears, is still the victim of a chronic earthquake. Besides that of the 17th ult., which we have already mentioned, on the 22nd another shake took place when the theatre was crowded; luckily, no damage was done. Again, on the 24th, there was another series of these disagreeable visitants. All of the shocks have been accompanied with a loud noise.

New Tariff with Bolivia.—The President of Bolivia has passed the following order:—"Oruro, 17th Sept. 1863—Articles of Argentine produce will in future pay a duty on imports into Bolivia, which will be regulated according to the duty charged in the Argentine Provinces on Bolivian exports." The Bolivian Government has requested the Consul at Salta to report on the duties now charged, and the following has been forwarded by the Bolivian Consul to his Government. "The fixed duties on foreign importations to this Republic are generally 15 p% and 2 1¦2p% extra duty. In settling the relative duties, the Government should remember that if Bolivia imports 50,000 dols. annually, this Republic imports 1,000,000 dollars yearly. Lately, the Consul has been consulted as to whether the duties of transit should be considered as those of import. As soon as this point is settled, the Bolivian Consul will make known the result."

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF

Proves its superiority to all other remedies in relieving the sufferers of pain, "at once." A few minutes is sufficient to convince the most skeptical of its marvellous powers. So swift is its action in soothing the most violent pain, allaying irritation and inflammation, in transforming the rheumatic, the crippled, and bed ridden, to the enjoyment of ease and comfort, in curing Dysentery, Diarrhœa, and all internal and external pains, that patients ascribe its beneficent power to enchantment instead of the plain matter of fact results from its skilfully combined properties. Whenever there is pain use it.

Sewing Machines.

The largest assortment in town, for the use of private Families, Tailors, Shoemakers, Saddlers, &c. These Machines are manufactured under the latest patents and superior to any others. One of their special merits consists in being entirely noiseless. This improvement is very important, as it is notorious that Singer's and Ladd, Webster, and Co's machines, especially those for manufacturing purposes, are insufferable on account of the great noise. Noiseless Machines work very easy, and consequently are of much more duration than any other.

BENSON'S WATCHES AND CLOCKS.

Watch and Clock Maker, by Special Appointment, to His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales.

Opinions of the London Press upon Benson's Great Clock and Watches in the Exhibition, 1862.

"As a sample of English clock work on a large scale, the works of this are probably the finest finished that have ever been seen in this country. No Chronometer could be fitted with more perfect or more carefully adjusted mechanism."—Times, June 11 1862.

"A triumph of ingenuity."—Telegraph, March 31 1862.

"A more splendid and exquisitely finished piece of mechanism we have never seen."—Standard, June 17 1862.

"Some of them are of great beauty and if the English watch trade only follow up with the same spirit and success this first attempt to compete with foreigners in decorative watches, there seems to be no reason why we should not get the trade entirely into our own hands."—Times, June 23, 1862.

"Ranged around the base of the clock were the Watches which Mr. Benson exhibited, and which have been universally admired for the beauty and elegance of the designs engraved upon them. The movements are of the finest quality which the art of horology is at present capable of producing. The clock and watches were objects of great attraction, and well repaid the trouble of an inspection." Illustrated London News, November 8, 1862.

THE SUFFERER'S BEST FRIEND.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

ALL DISORDERS AFFECTING THE LIVER, STOMACH AND BOWELS.

These Pills can be confidently recommended as the most simple and certain remedy for indigestion, flatulency, acidity, heartburn, colic, constipation and all the many maladies resulting from disordered stomach or bowels. In a disease it is of primary importance to set the stomach right. These Pills are purifiers, alteratives, and strengtheners of the stomach. They may be taken under any circumstances. Though powerfully tonic, and satisfactorily aperient, they are mild in their operation, and beneficial to the whole system.

WEAKNESS AND DEBILITY, NERVOUS IRRITABILITY

The wholesome effect exercised by these admirable Pills over the blood and fluids generally is like a charm in dispelling low spirits, and restoring cheerfulness. Their general aperient qualities well fit them for a domestic medicine, particularly for females of all ages and periods of life. They never betray any disagreeable irritating qualities; they quickly eject all impurities from the system, and regulate every function of the body, giving wonderful tone and energy to weak and debilitated persons, while they brace and strengthen the nervous system in a most extraordinary manner.

OLD COUGHS, COLDS, AND ASTHMATICAL AFFECTIONS.

These Pills, assisted in their action by rubbing Holloway's Ointment very effectually twice a day upon the throat and chest, and keeping those parts covered with the preparation, will be found the most effective remedy for asthma, coughs, colds, bronchitis, and influenza. These remedies tranquilize the hurried breathing, soothe the irritated air-tubes, and assist in dislodging the phlegm which stop up the air-passages. This treatment has proved wonderfully efficient in not only curing old settled coughs and colds, but asthma of many years standing, and even when patients were in so bad a state as to lie down on their beds lest they be choked by phlegm.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following Diseases:—

Ague	Female Irregularities	Rheumatism
Asthma	Fevers of all kinds	Retention of Urine
Bilious Complaints	Fits	Scrofula, or King's Evil
Blotches on the Skin	Gout	Sore throats
Bowel Complaints	Head-ache	Stone and Gravel
Colics	Indigestion	Secondary Symptoms
Constipation of the Bowels	Inflammation	Tic-Douloureux
Consumption	Jaundice	Tumours
Debility	Liver Complaints	Ulcers
Dropsy	Lumbago	Venereal Affections
Dysentery	Piles	Worms of all kinds
Erysipelas		Weakness from whatever cause.

Sold at the Establishment of Professor Holloway, 244, Strand, (near Temple Bar,) London, and by all respectable Druggists and dealers in Medicine throughout the civilized world, at the following prices:—1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., 11s., 22s., and 33s. each Pot.

 There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes

N. B.—Direction to the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each pot.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—Confidential advice.—To all persons who suffer from bilious headache, disordered stomach, biliousness, or flatulency, these Pills are most strongly recommended as the safest, best, and quickest mode of obtaining ease, without weakening or irritating the nervous system. Holloway's Pills are especially useful in clearing away any excess of bile, which usually produce fever, unless remedial measures be adopted without delay. In asthma, bronchitis, and congestion of the lungs they may be relied upon for removing all danger. And, by purifying and regulating the circulation, they effectually prevent relapses. By rousing the liver to a fair secretion of bile, and quickly carrying it from the system, these Pills ward off low spirits, listlessness, and those distressing feelings often called "nervous."
